

CHILD FELL FIVE STORIES AND LIVES

Two-Year-Old Annie Hurlman
Survives Terrible Plunge
Down Air-shaft.

Rosy-cheeked Annie Hurlman, two years old, leaped from the airshaft between Nos. 49 and 51 First avenue today to shout "Grossmutter!" when she toppled and fell to the bottom of the shaft, five stories. She was picked up alive and the doctors say she has a chance to recover.

Annie's father, John Hurlman, is a railroad man. The children, Annie, aged two, and George, aged four, sleep in a room adjoining the kitchen. Each morning Annie and George, on waking come to the window and pipe "Grossmutter" (Grandmother) to Mrs. Herbert, who lives across the airshaft. This morning Annie leaped too far and out she went, falling without a cry. George was speechless with horror and sat transfixed, peering down the shaft.

Mr. Hurlman, sitting in the kitchen, noticed that the children had suddenly grown silent. He called to George and a very white-faced little boy came silently forth, his eyes dilated with horror. At the same moment, loud screams from women on the lower floors drew Mrs. Hurlman to the window and she saw her little girl lying at the bottom of the shaft. The shaft was so netted with clothes-line that the child's fall had been broken all the way down until within twenty-five feet of the bottom, when a rope snapped and dropped her that distance.

Policeman Quinn, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, called an ambulance. Dr. Hunt took Annie to Bellevue, where it was found that she had a fractured jaw and possibly a fractured skull.

FIVE WOMEN BROUGHT HERE AS WHITE SLAVES.

Five pretty young French women, who are supposed to have been brought to America by traffickers in white slaves, were taken from Ellis Island to the District-Attorney's office today, where they were questioned as to their mission here.

Mr. Jerome told Commissioner of Immigration Watson that the cases of the five women, who were brought here on June 11, and should be released, if the Parisians prove to be bona fide. As a result of their detention at Ellis Island three men have been arrested, Oscar Mouvet and Louis Paine are in the Tombs, while Joseph Tushard was released in $10,000. He has not been seen since his liberation.

THIEF STOLE HIS TIME.

An Irishman whose watch had been stolen by a pickpocket on Greenwich street last evening kept Magistrate Moss, in the Centre Street Court, waiting a full hour today when the thief was arraigned, owing to his tardiness. "Listen the policeman tell you to be in court at 9 A. M.?" the Magistrate asked.

"Sure, he did, Yer Onnen," was the reply, "but how was I to tell when it was 9 A. M.?" The thief said one watch and now was I to tell the time of the day?"

As the thief pleaded guilty, the Irishman got his watch and went on his way rejoicing.

HELD FOR ROBBING BALLOONIST'S MAIL

Mail Clerk Arrested on Charge of Rifling Letters of Dr.
Julian P. Thomas.

Gustave Reiber, a clerk employed at Branch M, of the New York Post-Office, was arrested today by Inspector Jacobs charged with rifling letters addressed to Dr. Julian P. Thomas, food specialist and balloonist, of No. 172 West Seventy-second street. Marked bills placed in Dr. Thomas's letters were found later in the possession of Reiber. The arrest brought to light the extent of Dr. Thomas's business, which he placed at from $200 to $500 a day.

"Mine is largely a correspondence practice," said Dr. Thomas to an Evening World reporter, "and I employ fifteen girls to open my mail. The letters are deposited by the postman in a special box built in the hallway of my house."

Two weeks ago Dr. Thomas laid information with the postal authorities that he was receiving many complaints from patients that money sent had not been acknowledged. "The extent of the thieving I do not know," said the specialist, "but it will run into the thousands of dollars. There had been previous thefts in the past four years, but after I lodged complaint at the post-office the stealing would stop."

This time the investigation was placed in the hands of Inspector Jacobs, the veteran investigator of the Post-office, who laid a trap. Marked bills to the amount of $5 were placed in an envelope addressed to Dr. Thomas, which was shadowed through the mails, the quest ending when it reached Reiber, a directors clerk in the branch station at Sixty-ninth street and Broadway.

Reiber took his arrest coolly. At first he protested his innocence. He was immediately searched, and some of the marked money was said to have been found in his pockets. The prisoner was the last person in Branch M, to be suspected of a crime on account of his marked religious tendencies. His wife is a Baptist mission worker, and he was a plate-ringer in his church. He has an uncle in the Fire Department, and a child less than a year old.

RUSSIAN GIANT MAY BE DEPORTED.

If Found to Be of Weak Mind Immigration Authorities Will Not Let Him Land.

Machnow, the Russian giant, who will reach New York to-morrow on the steamship Pretoria, may not be permitted to land.

Chief Immigration Commissioner Watson said today that the man would be held up until his mental status is examined into. The Commissioner has decided to take this action on account of an anonymous letter he has just received from Newcastle-on-Tyne.

The missive declares Machnow is a weak-minded and that it would be the efforts of eleven men to get him on the Pretoria.

When shown for others' profits, the letter continues, "and if you do your duty you will not permit him to land."

The Commissioner has given orders that no matter what class passenger the giant is, he be held for a medical examination.
